His Awful Experience.

"Here," said one of two travelers who were waiting alone in the waiting room of a lone some railway station, looking up from his newspaper, "is the account of an explorer who spent a night in a pit with a savage N. midian lion. Imagine, if you can, the horrors of such an experience."

"I can," replied the other traveler, promptly, "for I was recently forced to pass a night in a double room in a village hotel with a life insurance agent, who realizing that all flesh is grass, was determined to make hay, not only while the sun shone but by moonlight as well, and a loud voiced man who had once had the pleasure of shaking hands with Admiral Dowe, and was unable to forget it."

White Man Target Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw him turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, and his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was yellow jaundice. He was treated by the doctor but without success. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." It truly proves its matchless merit for stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Only 50c.

Quite Superfluous.

Curate—"Oh—er—by the way, Mr. Bloggs, I was wondering whether you would give me a small subscription for a most excellent object. I mean the repairing of the cemetery wall."

Wealthy Parson—"Not me, sir. The cemetery wall? Don't need any repairing. There as is inside can't get out, 'n' them as is outside don't want to get in. Good morning!"—Wm. A. Johnson.

Cure for Cholera—Never Known to Fail.

During last May an infant child of my neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this medicine frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. CURTIS BAKER, Bookkeeper, Ohio. Sold by H. R. Echols, Marlinton, Barlow and Moore, Editors; Amos Barlow, Huntsville; D. T. Neel, Mackays.

Manitively a World Power.

Reuben Raliffence: We want to hang on to every foot of land that we see fit. I tell you, the United States could govern the whole world to-day.

Henry Hoeorn: Oh! hold on! Ain't ye puttin' that party wrong? Reuben Raliffence: Not at all. There's twenty men after every office we've got to day.—Judge.

McClintic's Camp.

The recent rains did not make driving water in the Middle Fork. Our worthy Clerk J. A. McLaughlin has been out for some days.

W. McClintic is at Camden on business this week.

Pat Kearney, the Gausley Company's scaler, went out to Marlinton recently on a business trip.

Harry Lusier has come back again. He is an old right cook, and only weighs 240, but he is a better just the same. His wife and five children are staying at McClintic's.

There are about 65 men here and are doing a good business skidding and building slide.

Mr. Samuel Rankin is the woods boss. He is about 70 years of age but he is as active and get around as well as many of the younger men. He is a fine woodsman and has spent several years on the water.

Jack Shepherd is the slide builder.

Six teams are at work in the woods and two teams are kept busy hauling supplies from Cowen.

Robert Humphrey and David Trump are the blacksmiths.

Some of the boys went out to attend justice court the 27th.

Pat Henry will complete his job in about ten days.

Mat Heckard who has been jobbing at the Three Forks, went protesting and moved out.

Peter Hammons has a job of road making; he will work about five miles. His contract is about five miles. W. McClintic is having the road made.

There will soon be a good road from Marlinton to Cowen, Webster County.

Edden Hammons can play the fiddle, fish, and dig ramps all at the same time.

DUNMORE.

Fine showers and was badly needed.

Hay making has commenced; hay crop light; oats no good, rat-tensake crop fairly good. Several fine ones have been killed.

BUCKEYE.

W. McClintic is at home from camp for a few days.

R. W. Hill of Academy was a caller in this part a few days ago.

Several attended the Mill Point sale Saturday.

John Adkins is holding forth on Bu Bu Han this morning.

Pat Kearney of Cowen was here among friends recently. He contemplates moving to or near Marlinton soon.

Harry Thompson is home from camp.

George Jackson is visiting in this part now.

Kennie Courtney of Marlinton was looking after his interest here Sunday.

J. W. Beard of Academy was here last week on business.

Joseph H. McNeil has a fine lot of cattle and they are nice and fat,—would be all right for the market.

He has put up his market. He sold about $200 worth of hay during the winter and spring and had enough for his own use. He is a hustler.

George McCollam has finished cutting wheat and will take a fishing trip soon.

George Simmons has rented the home place of the deceased Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Simmons. He has a nice crop, and everything looks favorable for the season.

UNCLE SAM.

Married.

Mr. R. C. McDaniel, Cashier Pocahontas Bank, and Miss Maud Yeager, daughter of H. A. Yeager, of Marlinton, were married in Rouseville Saturday evening.

Both of the Methodist church of Hout.

The news of their marriage came as a surprise to their friends in Marlinton. They will visit Cincinnati and Parkersburg on their tour.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but he writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it in five days.

Low Ulcers, wounds and piles—it's the best salve in the world. 25c.

Sold by Harry E. Echols, Marlinton; S. J. Brown, Mill Point; E. L. Beard & Co., Academy; H. N. Haman, Rouseville; S. F. Miles, Falling Spring.

The Greenbrier Academy.

A Reliable School for Boys and Young Men preparing themselves for Business, Scientific Institute, or College. Careful, elevating, home-like surroundings. Careful instruction. Personal interest taken in each boy, the aim being to inspire in each boy the lofty ideals of thorough scholarship, broad attainments, sound judgment, and Christian manliness.

What some of the Patrons Say of the Academy.

"Apart from educational excellence, the moral tone of the school is of the highest character."

"The Principal and his assistants have the indispensable faculty of successful teachers of infusing an enthusiasm into their pupils that is very gratifying to parents."

"Having been a patron of the Greenbrier Academy, I most heartily approve of the discipline and course of instruction given the students."

FILL POINT.

Good morning, Mr. Editor.

Fine morning, and a cloud in the sky, and everything hot and dry. Farmers are busy harvesting but complain of short crop.

Miss Lizzie Simmons was on the sicklist Sunday.

Several persons from this place attended the basket meeting on Droop Mountain Sunday. Everything went off nicely except another Droop Mountain fight, which was not as exciting as the one in the sixties.

We understand that N. C. Sharp is coming home from the Johns Hopkins Hospital, but we did not hear that he was benefited.

WILSON, WYOMING. Address: FARM JOURNAL, PHILADELPHIA

Something about Irrigation.

There are six Hokey Mountain States, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, Utah and Wyoming, where the farmers have to depend more upon irrigation than rainfall for success in their agricultural undertakings.

In Nebraska and Wyoming water conservators are apparently at odds, and the controversy as to water rights and privileges, but in the other four States there is a great deal of irrigation in the courts about these matters.

When a citizens rights are once settled he regards himself as far more sure of regular crops than in the "hokey States," where there is always such liability to drought or excessive rainfalls. The irrigator claims that he has the exact degree of moisture he may need and that he wants it and at no other time—always too on top.

Cure for Cholera Infantum—Never Known to Fail.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this medicine frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. CURTIS BAKER, Bookwater, Ohio. Sold by H. B. Nichols, Marlinton, and Moore, Kiley, Ames Barlow, Huntersville; D. T. McNeil, Buckeye.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great constipation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw him turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was called jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." It first proved its matchless merits for stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Only Dr. H. B. Nichols, Marlinton, N. J. Brown, 111 Point, 1-1, Beard & Co., Station; H. S. Hannan, Benick & Valley; S. F. QUART BOTTLES.

IN THE SHADOW OF DEATH.

A Whole Family Cured.

Mrs. C. H. Kingsbury, who keeps a millinery and fancy goods store at St. Louis, Gratiot Co., Mich., and who is well known throughout the country, says:

"I was badly troubled with rheumatism, colic and neuralgia. I had liver complaint and was very bilious. I was in a bad condition; every day I began to fear that I should never be a well woman; that I should have to settle down into a chronic invalid, and live in the shadow of death. I had JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA recommended to me. I took FOUR BOTTLES AND IT CURED ME, and cured many other kinds of medicine that I had tried. I would cheerfully recommend it to every one. I have taken many other kinds of medicine. I prefer JOHNSTON'S to all of them." MICHAEL BROWN, Detroit, Mich. HARRY R. ECHOLS, MARLINTON, W. VA.

THE TEMPLE OF NATURE.

Talk not of temples—there is one

Built without hands; to mankind

giving;

Its lamps are the meridian sun,

And all the stars of heaven;

Its walls are the cerulean sky;

Its floor the earth so green and fair;

Like dome its vast immensity—

All Nature worships there!

The Alps arrayed in stainless snow,

The Andean ranges yet unrobed,

In sunrise and in sunset glow,

Like altar-dress to God;

A thousand fere volutes blaze;

And thunder fits its robes in prayer—

All Nature worships there!

The Ocean braves resistlessly,

And pours his glittering treasures

forth;

His waves—the priesthood of the sea—

Knelt on the shell-gemmed earth,

And there emit a hollow sound,

In reverence how to Him;

As if they murmured praise and prayer;

On every side 'tis holy ground—

All Nature worships there!

The cedar and the mountain pine,

The willow on the fountain's brim,

The tulip and the cypripedium,

The song-birds pour their sweet lay

From tower and tree and middle air—

The rushing river murmurs praise—

All Nature worships there!

THE WORDS OF A PROPHET.

II.

S noticed,

Unitarians advanced in three columns

upon the national capital.

Two of these columns out-

ed and waited the approach of the third from the west at Harper's

Ferry. The force

from the south-west

was advancing

along the line of the Chesapeake

and Ohio railroads.

The President

had ordered the

Governor of West

Virginia to stop their congress; but he was, supposing the strength to lie

with them, had met

them with open

arms and rendered

them every assistance.

Carlyle had gone to

Washington

and urged the President to attack

the forces at Harper's

Ferry before the reinforcements should meet them. The President agreed to do so; made Carlyle a major general; and

ordered him to keep the southwestern

column at bay until

himself could defeat

their other

unitarian forces.

Carlyle therefore

horne's tail and turn him loose

with the others headed for the enemy, while the soldiers followed on foot.

As we have said the terrified animals rushed into the head of the Unionist column, disorganizing it.

The Virginians charged behind the horses and disorganization became retreat. At that moment

one thousand picked men with two hundred and fifty students from the Military Institute fell upon the disorganized flank from a defile of the mountain which had hidden them. Retreat now became rout; panic seized the advance, which wheeled upon their followers, trampling them down if they were not swift and strong enough to trample others. Some took to the wood, some to the water, some kept the railroad track,

while thousands in helpless rear surrendered. They were utterly routed and dispersed.

But Carlyle's force was too small to pursue his victory. He had, indeed, scarce enough to take care of the vast number of prisoners.

On the same day of the route,

that is the 14th of July,—the forces of Unionists and, as they were afterwards called, Imperialists

fought a battle near Harper's

Ferry which was a drawn one. The Imperialists withdrew within the defences of Washington City,

while the Unionists withdrew into Pennsylvania.

The Imperialists, who represented

the capitalist side of the controversy, were sore pressed for supplies. All the great grain fields of the west being held by the Unionists. The Imperialists were not willing to make many concessions, but in vain. Municipal law is a kind of natural religion,

whose function it is to teach men justice. The capitalists of the country had long disobeyed the spirit of that teaching while trying to enforce its precepts upon others. The result was now that all men displayed and disrespected the teacher.

The cry amongst the Unionist forces was some for Socialism and some for Communism; some for sacerdacy, and all for down with sacerdacy and plutocracy.

The Imperialists, as they saw their fortune melt away under the destructive hand of popular revolution, stood aghast, helpless, stunned. They had made

Wealth a god. Now in the time of their trouble that God had made to himself wings and flown away in a cloud of smoke through the air.

The President recalled Carlyle

to Washington and gave into his hand the command of the imperial forces. He sent part of the forces to take the place of his Virginians in guarding the south-west. He brought up his Virginians to help him to form an army for the defence of the national Capital.

When his army was in proper condition he advanced into Pennsylvania, where the Unionists were encamped near and almost upon the old battlefield of Gettysburg.

Carlyle's success had brought to the Imperial cause the help of many of the Southern States, who thought some servitude of law and order with aristocracy would be better than anarchy, and they were moved by a choice between the two. Carlyle therefore had at his command on the 15th day of October a considerable force, almost inferior in numbers to the Unionist force. He advanced to within about ten miles of Gettysburg where he fortified an improbable position which he left unattended. On the twentieth of October he advanced upon the enemy.

Then, who commanded the Unionist force, transferred the Unionist force to the south-west and the Unionist force to the west. Carlyle's force was now in a position to take the Unionist force to the west. Carlyle's force was
